Antigo Journal, Monday, March 27, 2017, Page 2

Some balk as Seattle seeks to spend more on homeless
A lack of sleep may have caused an accident early Friday morning.

SPRINGFIELD, III. (AP) — The driver of a vehicle

Illinois considers legalizing marijuana for a fiscal boost

Antigo police also cited a 29-year-old man for his second offense of operating after revocation of his license. The man was arrested for his third offense of operating vehicles without a license or with a suspended license. In the most serious case, a 29-year-old man was arrested for his third offense of operating a vehicle on public roads without a license or with a suspended license.

A doctor of Antigo County sheriff's office was arrested for his third offense of operating a vehicle on public roads without a license or with a suspended license.

In most cases, drivers who operate a vehicle on public roads without a license or with a suspended license are cited for a traffic violation. In other cases, drivers may face more serious charges, such as operating under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

Drivers who operate a vehicle on public roads without a license or with a suspended license may also face fines and fees, as well as possible loss of driving privileges or license suspension.

It is important for drivers to obtain a valid license and operate their vehicle safely and responsibly to avoid penalties and potential harm to themselves and others on the road. Drivers who operate a vehicle without a license or with a suspended license put themselves at risk and could be putting others in danger as well.